Sing Live Ltd

Are pleased to announce their forthcoming concert
"Sporting Anthems to Welcome the 2012 Games"
On Saturday 28th January 2012
At Birmingham Town Hall

We are very excited to bring you details of our next concert!

It's not every day that a theme like this one comes along – so what better excuse to sing some of the most powerful and robust choral music. There are some amazing songs written to introduce and accompany sporting events and in particular the Olympic Games – so we intend to celebrate a good deal of it!

We will be singing Proud – the official theme for our Olympic Bid, Barcelona from the 1992 Olympics and Amigos Para Siempre from the same games. Dare to Dream from Sydney in 2000, The Power of the Dream from Atlanta 1996, Time to Say Goodbye from the closing ceremony of Special Olympics World Summer Games in 2007 and World In Union, plus if you have a sporting favourite, let us know and we might be able to include it?

This is just a taste of the many special anthems we will be mastering over the coming months, all geared for a really 'big sing'. Whether you are interested in sport or not fortunately makes no difference whatsoever! We can all be thrilled that sporting events inspire such wonderful music and we can make the most of it!

As athletes everywhere gear up for the world stage, preparing and practicing to excel at their chosen activity to win gold medals in London 2012 – here's your chance to prepare and practice for your own 'gold medal performance' on stage with Sing Live!

Your Vocal Coaches will be Thomas Lydon for the London pod and Andy Guthrie for the Central and West Midlands pod. Steve Roberts will be your Musical Director We look forward to another wonderful concert and seeing you at the 1st rehearsal.

The preview evenings will take place on
